Cathy Elliot – Tax Collector

I know, when you hear “Tax Collector” you think of some old guy with fangs dressed in black. But here in Windsor, that couldn't be further from the truth. I'm the town's Tax Collector and I'm also an avid country music fan and my favorite pastime is riding my Harley with my favorite companion, Tim McGraw – oops, I mean my husband, Mike.

Windsor's Tax Office is a three person operation but what we lack in manpower, we more than make up for with energy, enthusiasm and a concern for Windsor residents. Believe me, lots of people have trouble paying their taxes and that's where we can help. We can't make the taxes go away but we can help you with payment arrangements under accepted guidelines.

When I was a youngster, I wanted to be a physical therapist. As it turns out, now I'm sort of a tax therapist and I love the work.

If you have a problem paying your Windsor real estate, motor vehicle or personal property taxes, please come and see us. If you happen to visit on your motorcycle, park it back so we can see it. If you just love Tim McGraw, stop by even if you don't have a problem with your taxes!
