BLACK HISTORY MONTH EVENTS IN WINDSOR

THE BLACK FAMILY: REPRESENTATION, IDENTITY, AND DIVERSITY

January 14 - February 28 – Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Video

Due to the pandemic, the Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration sponsored by the Archer Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church will not take place in-person this year. However, a video reflecting on previous programs will be aired on Win-TV during this time. The featured keynote speaker for this year's video program will be Windsor Native and Motivational Speaker Mr. Byron Washington.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH BEYOND WINDSOR

February 5 - 26 – United Nations Virtual Black History Tour

Offered in an online format this year, the Black history-themed tour of the United Nations will provide you a unique look at how the lives of people of African descent have intertwined with the mission of the United Nations in fields such as peace and security and human rights, with a special emphasis on decolonization.

February 9 – THE BLACK CHURCH: THIS IS OUR STORY, THIS IS OUR SONG—A WTTW Screening and Community Conversation

Join WTTW for THE BLACK CHURCH: THIS IS OUR STORY, THIS IS OUR SONG, from executive producer, host, and writer Henry Louis Gates, Jr., the Alphonse Fletcher University Professor at Harvard University and director of the Hutchins Center for African and African American

Human Relations Commission, Zoom Event @6pm

February 11 – The Bonds of Family and Legacy

In partnership with the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, this virtual experience has been curated with the backdrop of the 2021 Black history theme—The Black Family: Representation, Identity, and Diversity. The Black family has been a topic of study in many disciplines; the Black family knows no single location, since family reunions and genetic-ancestry searches testify to the spread of family members across states, nations, and continents. Join us for a meaningful moderated discussion with thought leaders and influencers.
