

Attention!

World War II, Korean Conflict, and Vietnam Veterans

Your service to our country may have earned you a High School Diploma

By Connecticut state statute, a local or regional Board of Education may award a diploma to a veteran of World War II, the Korean Conflict, or the Vietnam War, pursuant to section 27-103, who left high school prior to graduation to serve in the armed forces of the United States, did not receive a diploma as a consequence of such service, and has been a Connecticut resident for at least fifty consecutive years. Find out if you qualify!
