ACT IT OUT DRAMA CLASS: SCENES AND MONOLOGUES

Exploring improvisation, movement and vocal techniques for the stage; participants build performance skills through character analysis and scene study. Students develop a process for approaching a script and discover how to bring their own unique talents to portraying a role. Working individually and collaborating with partners, they work on scenes and monologues from scripted plays or create their own original pieces. The class culminates with a Sharing of selections of their work.

April 17th - May 22nd 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m
Every Wednesday at LP Wilson

THE CLASS IS TAUGHT BY BARBARA WASHER $70
